

Congratulations
Integrated Schools' Sporting Achievements
May 2015

St Mary's College, Auckland: Chantelle Conroy and Aimee Cogger have been selected for the New Zealand Water Polo Youth Women's team. They will travel to Hungary and Germany to compete.

Rosmini College, Takapuna: Richard Rahardja is a member of the New Zealand Karate Team and is currently the New Zealand Open Karate Champion, as well as an Oceania and Commonwealth Karate champion. His older brother, former Rosmini College Sport's Captain, Christopher Rahardja, won a University of Auckland Blues Award in 2014, and has won the Blues award for Karate every year consecutively since 2010.

Marcellin College, Royal Oak: Adam Niziol won gold in the U13 category at the Archery NZ JAMA North Island Championships. Klarenzo and Leo Fo'ou represented Tonga in the NZTFI National Tag Competition.

Campion College, Gisborne: Placed 1st in an event at the National Surf Life Saving Championships – team members: Matt Scott, Danielle Scott, Jess Blakeman, Kirby Scammell, Abby Falwasser-Logan. Danielle Scott won gold in the U16 K4 500m and the K4 200m events at the New Zealand Canoe Sprint National and Oceania- Kayaking Championships.

St John's College, Hastings: Brodie Murrell has been selected to compete at the New Zealand Jet Ski Champs.

St Joseph's School, Hawera: Niall Clancy won a gold medal in the 1500m event at an Athletics Tournament in Australia.

Sacred Heart Girls' College, New Plymouth: Natalie Walsh placed 1st in the 13-15 years 5km and 10km races at the National Water Swimming Champs, placing her 7th overall.

Sacred Heart College, Napier: Alena Kamper has been selected to compete in the swimming section of the International Children's Games being held in the Netherlands.

Roncalli College, Timaru: Korlina Volkov competed in the New Zealand Ocean Swim Series in Akaroa, coming 1st overall in the non-wetsuit female section.

Marian College, Christchurch: Aimee Fraser, Samantha Caffell and Sophie Gowans won gold as part of the Avon novice four at the National Rowing Championships. Aimee was awarded New Zealand rowing coxswain of the day.

Kavanagh College, Dunedin: Tina Moata'ane has been selected in the Black Ferns Training Squad. Paige Newman won three gold medals at the South Island Surf Life Saving Championships.

John McGlashan College, Dunedin: Peter and Thomas Hartono are both playing tennis in Jakarta at international tennis tournaments. This will improve their national ranking.